Maaske To Leave for Turk Visit

Our president, Dr. Roben J. Maaske, has been granted a four-month leave of absence by the State Board of Higher Education, to take an assignment requested by the Turkish Ministry of Education through the Department of State in Washington, D.C. Dr. and Mrs. Maaske will leave for Turkey during the forepart of December.

Dr. Maaske's assignment in Turkey will involve making a general survey of teacher education in that country. He is the first man to take such an assignment in teacher education in Turkey and will be representing the U. S. Department of State for whom he is to prepare a written report of his survey. During his stay in Turkey, Dr. Maaske plans to show a film, "Oregon's Natural Resources" so that the Turkish people will be able to see what the United States, and Oregon in particular, is like.

The Maaske's will fly to Washington, D.C., where they will remain for two days' briefing after which they will proceed to New York for a day or two. They will leave New York by boat for South Hampton, England, and then proceed to London, where they will leave for Istanbul and Ankara, Turkey's capitol, by plane. Dr. Maaske will spend approximately three and a half months traveling through parts of Turkey and will also conduct lectures and seminars at Gazi Teachers College in Ankara.

On their return trip, some time during the first part of April, the Maaske's will leave their headquarters in Ankara by plane for such places as Switzerland, Germany, France, Belgium and London, and then proceed back home to the OCE campus.

AACTE Visits Here To Evaluate OCE Program

Representatives from the AACTE are visiting the OCE campus to evaluate our teacher education program and to exchange new ideas for curriculum improvement with us. The visitation committee will remain on the campus from Sunday, November 23, to Tuesday, November 25, and will evaluate all the phases of our college life. All accredited teacher-education colleges are included in this visitation program in order that new and better methods of education can be introduced to the colleges of this type.

In preparation for this visitation the OCE faculty has compiled a report of all phases of our college education program and posted it in the library for the inspection of OCE students and faculty.

Assembly To Present Japanese Speaker

Masayuki Harigai, the Japanese counsel at Portland, will speak at an assembly on Monday, December 1, on present conditions in Japan. The assembly will begin at 11 a.m. Morning classes will be shortened to allow time for the assembly.

Mrs. Hazarika Greets OCE Friends from Home in India in Letter to Registrar

The following is a copy of a letter received from Mrs. Suala Hazarika, international student from India, who attended OCE last year. Dear Mr. Lieuallen:

I hope this letter finds you in the best of health and spirit. I am very sorry for my negligence in writing to you. But, never for a day, have I really forgotten my good American friends. We shall always be grateful to them for being so kind to us. We try to explain to our people that the Americans we meet here are not true representatives of real American people. I wish people like you would come here and try to strengthen Indo-American friendship.

We arrived home on August 22 after spending about two months in the United Kingdom, France, Switzerland and Germany. We enjoyed our stay in Switzerland best of all. It is almost like America. We saw the destruction caused by war in Germany, it made us very unhappy and fearful of the coming war. German people are especially nice to the Indians, as India is the only country which cannot be influenced by any party or bloc. (That is what they think!) From London we came by boat and had a nice voyage through the Suez Canal and Red Sea.

Instructors Meet To Discuss Graduate Work

Instructors in graduate work at EOCE, SOCE, OCE, and several other colleges in the state, met on the OCE campus last Friday and Saturday, November 21 and 22, to discuss texts and course outlines so that the classes offered at the three institutions can be coordinated.

Susan Moberg Appears As 'Joan of Lorraine'

The Maid of Orleans appeared before her audience last Wednesday and Friday evenings. This Joan was played by an OCE actress, Susan Moberg, or rather Susan played the part of an actress, Miss Gray, who played the part of Joan of Arc. The play was both the story of Joan of Lorraine and of the problems and difficulties faced by a group of actors and actresses attempting to portray Joan's life. Therefore nearly every member of the cast played two or more parts.

The conflict in the opinions of Miss Gray and play director Mr. Masters, played by John Ulrich, in regard to how Joan of Arc was obliged to use the powers of evil to further her divine cause of saving France, equips the play with philosophical values and contemplations upon good and evil.

Students who made this OCE drama, directed by Mr. George Harding, a success are John Ulrich, Boyd Long, John Pizzuti, Gary Burch, Donald Seibert, Frank Maxwell, Richard Harry, Elmer Sankey, Daniel Browne, Milford Barnes, Susan Moberg, Margaret Getty, Pauline Dyksterhuis, Betty Beigh, Louise Titworth, Elina Haggren and Holly Campbell. The lighting was handled by Ed Montgomery. Holly Campbell was director's assistant. Don Seibert and Patricia Watt handled the business. Louise Titworth, Jim Colley, Eleanor Fulmore, Marjorie Ford, Rosalie McClintock were in charge of costumes, properties, make-up and prompting.

December 8-12 Will Be Pre-Scheduling Week

Pre-scheduling for winter term will take place during the week of December 8-12. During this period, students will plan with advisers their study programs for winter term. Final registration will occur Monday, January 5, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Students should be planning now what subjects they intend to take during winter term.

OCE Presents 'Ragtime Review'

"Alexander's Ragtime Review" is the theme of the student body sponsored vaudeville show which will be presented December 5 in the Campbell hall auditorium. The show will consist of acts reminiscent of the "Gay Nineties."

Rehearsals are now under way for the show. The next rehearsal is this evening, November 24, at 7 in the CH auditorium. Some of the cast already familiar to OCE students from former years will be Arliss Klump, Edie Nielson, Laurence Miller, Edithanne Simpson, Elmer Sanke, the OCE male quartet (Harry Jahnke, Keith Jensen, Laurence Miller and Bill Poole), and the trio (Barbara Calloway, Marilyn Hall and Kathy Miller.) Among the new members of the "OCE Rogue's Gallery of Talent" are Johnny Davis, Elaine Irwin, Virginia McCullen, Karen Woll, Nona Silva and Joe Roberts.

The acts will consist of vocal, instrumental, dancing and even a silent movie. This is a student body project under the direction of Arliss Klump and Edie Nielson.

Student Teachers Must Make Application Now

The committee on student teaching will meet on December 9 to consider applications for student teaching for the winter term. All applications, to be considered, must be in the Education office, complete with pictures, health and speech reports, and faculty references, by December 5. This does not apply to Joint Degree students.

Speech tests will be given by Mr. Harding December 1, 2, and 3. Watch the English department bulletin board for information as to hours.

If you have not done so, you should pick up your application blanks in the Education office at once.

Dr. Brodie Gives Talk

Tonight, November 24, at 8 o'clock, Dr. Jessie Brodie, M.D., from Portland will meet with all interested women students and faculty in the living room of Todd hall. Dr. Brodie will present a discussion on sex hygiene.

Dr. Jessie Brodie was a guest speaker on this campus two years ago. She has been asked to return this year by the junior counselors in the dormitory.

Chuck Pinion Chosen OCE's All-American

Charles Pinion, OCE's 1952 "All-American"

Honors Given Chuck At Candy Land Formal

Chuck Pinion, stellar performer in football and basketball, was presented as the 1952 "All-American" at the November 22 All-American formal, "Candy-Land." Gloria Logan, president of Staff and Key, co-sponsors of the dance, awarded Mr. Pinion the engraved plaque which has been passed along to each All-American throughout the years. A scroll was also given.

Pinion, a junior from Reedsport, has played a leading role in the past two OCE football seasons and is currently in the battle for starting positions on the basketball squad. He was spark-plug at his forward position last season.

With the theme of "Candy Land" couples danced amid myriads of "goodies." Brightly colored lollypops and jelly beans grew in little gardens. A large basket of assorted candies stood as the centerpiece. Giant striped candy sticks stood beside every door. Refreshments were served from a stand with a "Mountain Bar" wrapping.

Music for the dance was furnished by the six-piece campus band, led by Mr. Stowell.

Spring Honor Banquet Considered by Council

How to give everyone recognition and honor for the service they perform for the school has been a subject discussed quite at length at recent student council meetings. This subject was first brought before the group on November 10 when it was suggested that a student body sponsored banquet be given in honor of the football team for their outstanding performance this term. All agreed at that time that the football team was deserving, but that other groups and individuals were also performing important services for the school and received little recognition for them. Financially it is impossible for the student body to give a banquet for all of these individuals.

At the November 17 council meeting the suggestion was made that an all-school banquet take the place of the award assembly which is held annually in the spring. Although it is looking forward too far to make any decision on the subject, a majority of the council members were in favor of the idea. It was felt that a banquet would have a better atmosphere for the presentation of awards than the present assembly award program.

Lucille Goyak was appointed as chairman of this proposed banquet. She will write to various schools to inquire into their recognition and award assemblies. Civic organizations were mentioned as possible sources of help to serve at the banquet.

Freshmen To Sponsor Dance 'Shades of Blue'

"Shades of Blue," a sport dance sponsored by the freshman class, will be held December 6 in Maple hall. Music for the dance will be furnished by records.

The theme, selected by Dot Swigart and Pat Todd, and selected by the committee, is built around the thought that everyone attending the dance is required to wear "shades of blue."

Virginia McCullen is general chairman of the dance. Assisting her will be Dot Swigart as head of decorations; Sharon Strand, head of refreshments; Chuck Emerick, head of entertainment; and Johnny Davis who is head of publicity.

Committee members are: Darlene Kinslow and Doug Harris, decorations; K'Lynn Brumbaugh, Betty Beigh and Joan Kremers, refreshments; Dick Jones and Karen Woll, entertainment.

Admission for the dance will be 25 cents a couple, plus a shade of blue. For the bashful fellows and the shy girls without dates, the admission will be 35 cents, plus a shade of blue. Shirts and slacks, flats and hose will be worn.

Intermission entertainment will be furnished by the talented freshman class.

The dance will be from 8:30 to 12.

Former OCE Student Joins 7th Infantry

Cpl. Arthur Sperber whose parents live on Route 3, Tillamook, recently arrived in Korea and has joined the 7th Infantry Division. Cpl. Sperber, who attended OCE before entering the army, is a rifleman in the 31st Regiment's Company G.

Since making the amphibious landing at Inchon in the fall of 1950, the 7th Division has fought in every sector of the Korean peninsula. Elements of the 7th were the only U.S. forces to reach the Yalu river.

MAKE THEM GO HIGHER!

One question that should be in the minds of all the students here at OCE is what will our professional standing be when we get out in the field of teaching?

Can we as future teachers make a valid claim that we are entering a true profession? On the surface it would seem that this question would be answered with an unquestionable "yes." The standards for entering the teaching field are steadily, though slowly rising and much progress has been made. However, if we have a true profession in teaching then it would seem only reasonable to insist that all those actually teaching should meet at least the minimum standards now required for those entering the teaching field. The fact remains that many teachers in Oregon continue teaching with emergency certification or certificates that required less preparation than the minimum now established.

Of course, the many years of valuable experience of many of these teachers cannot and should not be overlooked. The interest of some of these teachers in teaching as a profession is quite debatable, however, if they have not spent enough time in professional self-betterment to meet the standards now required for those now entering the teaching field.

If we as students are to better the professional standing of the teacher it would seem beneficial to support a professional organization that is concerned with raising the standards of our chosen profession. In this way we can become more helpful in raising and bettering the profession of teaching. —GJM

Did You Know That

Any student who must leave for home on Wednesday, November 26, will be excused from classes if they check out through the deans' offices.

The date of the student teacher seminar, usually meeting on Tuesday, has been changed to Monday, November 24.

There are "no parking" zones along the curbs on Monmouth avenue, 25 feet on the left and 15 feet on the right of the three crosswalks; from Jessica Todd hall to the Monmouth elementary school, from Campbell hall to the Administration building, and from the PE building to the Library building. Yellow lines will be painted along these curbs soon to indicate where parking is not allowed.

Gary Barnes is the new student council member from the freshman class. His position is defined as delegate at large, representing the freshman class. Until a definite decision is made, Gary will be a delegate at large working under the

They Sing, But How?

"Cock-a-doodle-do." What is it, Mrs. Henshaw's sick red rooster? "Tra-sol-la-te-do." A-ha, a closer look reveals that it is Mrs. Murray's music I class looking for a clear note as they slash back and forth across the scale. The old piano in the corner of the room rings out with a harmonious "b-ong." A voice closely follows, "oogh."

"I've known many cases where I didn't think he'd make it," chirps Mrs. Murray, "But I haven't found one yet who couldn't learn to sing."

His eyebrows curl up like horse-shoes, deep ditches stretch out across his cheeks — "Owee-guf"—fall out the notes.

"Just another undeveloped talent"—the student grins and tries again.

"But it doesn't seem fair for 'E' not to have a black key." "I don't know if its in bass or treble cleff!"

"Why do the sharps go up and the flats down?" "Is it four-four time, two-four, daylight saving or time to go?"

Arnold Arms' News

By Bud Long

Arnold Hiemback did not return from home until Wednesday of last week because of illness.

*****

One of Arnold Arms' roomers left us last week. Doug Harris moved to West House last Wednesday.

*****

Friday night's last showing of "Joan of Lorraine" rated a celebration at Arnold Arms. It meant that four of the boys, Tom Harry, Elmer Sankey, Don Seibert, and Bud Long were through bothering the rest of the house with their rehearsing.

*****

Having two telephones at Arnold Arms has caused a lot of mix-up lately. It is hard to tell which of the two are ringing. Several times during the last week both have been ringing at the same time.

In The Art Gallery

We are pleased to present to the students an exhibit by a widely acclaimed artist, Arthur A. Selander, who works in a variety of media.

Mr. Selander's paintings and pencil drawings are in such demand throughout the Pacific Northwest that we are fortunate to obtain this exhibit of creative sketches from his pencil. The sketches were made while traveling in Oregon and in the for Southern states.

Students who have worked in pencil will be especially interested in studying his technique noting the fine composition, beauty of spacing, and the sensitive handling of values of each picture, all of which shows Mr. Selander to be an artist of rare ability.

The gallery is open daily from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

AACTE Visits Council

The AACTE officials who are visiting OCE will be present at the student council meeting tonight, Monday, November 24, for the purpose of asking questions of some of the college's student leaders. The AACTE has been invited to attend the meeting at 7:30 p.m. The council's business meeting will be conducted before and after the AACTE visitation.

TODD HALL NEWS

By Peggy Allen

This week has been quiet around Todd hall with many tests being on the agenda. There were, of course, some parties to relieve the tension.

A surprise party for Marilyn Melquist and Delores Poole was held in room A, Monday night, Nov. 17. Among the guests who had their places marked by place cards were Evelyn Neal, Pat Holman, Darlene Kinslow and Rosalie Harrold as well as the honored guests.

Last Friday night a party was held in room 304 in which games were played and popcorn served. Among those who made it a success were Darlene Knaub, Elsie DeVries, Arlene Place, Darlene Kinslow, Doris Ayers, Dee Ann Larimer, Gladys Goska, Barbara Makinster, Shirley Carlo, Muriel Horning, Pat Holman, Rosalie Harrold, Joanne Kremers, Joan Belcher, Shirley Moser, and Peggy Allen.

Remember, girls, this column is for you and tells about your life at Jessica Todd hall. The reporter tries to make the rounds each week but sometimes doesn't see you. Keep the news coming and we will let the rest of the students around the campus know what's happening.

Marilyn Hall's engagement to Jim Sams of Independence was announced very cleverly last weekend. Hostesses for the evening were Fern Wallace and Margie Ford. The engagement was revealed when cup-cakes were served to the many guests. Hidden in the empty peanut shells baked in the cup-cakes was the announcement. Congratulations, Marilyn.

The talk of the dorm this week seems to revolve around a certain species of animal life which has no personal property inside or out that they can keep to themselves. Isn't it amazing how many parts there are to a frog?

Hobbies are springing up all over Todd hall. Chinese checkers seem to be the pastime for many residents. Carolyn Jones and Bev Jordan collect stamps. Bev Brock collects records. Dot Swigart knits Argyles for Stan. Pat Todd does textile painting. Jean Lauman's interests lie in ceramics and stuffed clowns. Sharon Strand finds glass cats interesting while Cecelia Moody is more choosy. Her cats have to be Siamese. Lila Mae Poppish likes swimming, skiing and tennis. She also has a green thumb, an African plant two feet high. Virginia McCullen collects foreign necklaces.

Joanne Foreman crochets coasters for glasses. Hula dancing and playing the ukulele top Barbara Silva's hobby list. Rean Fletcher finds a silver spoon collection and oil painting interesting. Margaret Getty collects miniature tea cups. Recently a friend in Seattle sent 15 additional ones. Miss Kempston raises African violets and knits.

News of Vets' Village

By Milford Barnes

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bushnell and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grove left for Powers Thursday to attend the funeral of a brother of Mrs. Grove's who died after a prolonged illness.

† † † †

We are now getting a new chimney in our laundry room. The wives in the village are happy about the new washing machines which have been purchased for the laundry, as the old ones were difficult to use as they were pretty well worn out.

† † † †

We are sorry to hear that we are losing one of the villagers as Mrs. Hennecke has decided to move into town with her two daughters.

† † † †

We are happy to say that Jim Spear and Mabel McKenzie are painting up apartment 7-A which they are planning to occupy after their coming marriage on December 20. We wish to congratulate them and to extend a hearty welcome.

† † † †

Also, although Bob Benson is not living in the village, we feel that he is one of us here. We wish to congratulate him and his wife on the baby girl which was born to them on November 7. She weighed nine pounds. The proud parents named her Delores Jean.

† † † †

There were several visitors during homecoming, some of them former occupants of the village. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Meiers were visiting the Bob Jobs. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pitcher visited the Hubert Deavers. Mr. Pitcher is now teaching at Powers. Also, Bob Downing was visiting friends at OCE. Then there was Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Lampa who came back to visit friends. Mr. Lampa is now teaching at Reedsport. Other recent occupants of the village who came back to visit were Mr. and Mrs. George Watts. We would like to welcome anyone else to come back to visit us whenever they can.

Radio Program To Give Story on Counseling

Counseling on this campus will be the subject of the regular broadcast, "OCE Calling," over station KOAC on Monday, November 24, at 6:15 p.m. John Ulrich, Barbara Callaway, Darlene Kinslow and Cliff Miller will be taking part. The script, prepared by Dean Seavey, gives a girl's reflections on the treatment given her by the faculty here. Duane Tucker of KOAC, is the narrator.

Hazarika Letter

It is very nice to be back home after such a long time. Our children are very happy. They warned me that if I try to leave them they would cry so loud that we will have to take them with us. My son said, "you left us because we were young and did not know anything, but this time we have become clever."

My husband will join his old post as the principal of Technical School, Assam. I am planning to write articles about American Education and try to persuade people to help me in starting a new school. I gave a talk on the radio about home life in America. They have many misconceptions. We need real good American people more than American dollars to improve relationship of both the countries.

We did not find any great change in our country after our long absence. In paper, we read about the government projects for improving people's condition, about the reforms taking place but in action we see nothing. Even the "nature" seems to be unkind to us. We had an unusual summer, some places were flooded twice in the same year. Usually it becomes cooler in September, but this time even October is pretty hot.

I received my diploma and a copy of the "Grove." My family is very happy to see pictures of all of you. Every day I tell them about our experiences and the way we were treated. Really those two years were the best years of our life.

Please convey best regards and sincere thanks to all our friends in the college.

Please remember us and write a line if you can find any spare time. With my best regards, yours truly

Basketball Squad Trimmed Down To 15 Members

OCE's basketball squad was last week divided into freshman and varsity units. Fifteen men were named to continue practice with the varsity squad. Included in this group were five returning lettermen: Bob Bushnell, captain, Charlie Pinion, Bill Palmquist, Howard Sullivan and Frank Rosenstock; and three transfer students, Bob Frantz, Toby Lewis and Frank Grove. Grove lettered at Lewis and Clark last year. Frantz and Lewis did not win varsity awards last year.

Also included were three squadmen from last year's group, Darrell Davis, Keith Jensen, Ray Hubbard, and Ron Ball and Larry Chamberlain, up from the JV's. Two freshmen were chosen for the varsity group. They are Don McKenzie and Don Pepper, both from Salem high. Pepper, however, has decided to drop basketball for this year so that he can spend more time on his studies. One other freshman will likely be named to replace Pepper.

If the team were to play this week the starting lineup would probably include: Bushnell and Palmquist at the guards; Grove at center; and Frantz and Lewis holding down the forward spots. Pinion and Sullivan have been handicapped in their bid to retain starting berths of a year ago. The press of student teaching duties has permitted Sullivan to practice only five or six days so far. Pinion, last year's leading scorer and a regular half-back on the football squad, couldn't turn out until the end of the football season. Also he has been hobbled by a severe thigh injury suffered in the OTI game.

Lack of height will again be the greatest obstacle to the squad. As last year, Rosenstock is the tallest man on the squad at six feet, three inches. Competition for starting positions continues spirited and the team figures to be considerably stronger in reserve strength this year.

INTRAMURAL

Team	Won	Lost	Tied	Pct.
Slippery Six	4	0	1	1.000
Independents	3	0	2	1.000
Mammy's	3	1	1	.750
West House	2	3	1	.400
Vets' Village	1	3	1	.250
Arnold Arms	1	4	1	.200
Vultures	1	4	1	.200

The Slippery Six crew, coached by Les DeHart, crept into the Intramural lead this past week as they bopped the Arnold Arms boys 27-12. Last week's co-leaders, Independents, fell back a half game in tying West House 13-13.

Ed Montgomery, John Sutton and Chuck Emrick shared the spotlight with Bob Kirkland and Ron Jones in the WH-Indep. tilt as the Solemn Sons pushed over 13 points in the second half to match a deficit incurred in the first half.

Most everyone got into the act in the SS-AA squabble with the league's leading scorer, Bob Sesar, being held to two points. Nick Bolas scored both Arnold Arms' touchdowns.

Intramural play winds up tonight with the championship hanging in the balance. The loop's two undefeated machines will lock themselves in combat with the title riding on the outcome.

Sharp-Shootin' Bob

Captain Bob Bushnell, steady sharpshooter, aims to bounce the Pacific Badgers and the Red Raiders from Southern Oregon in the season's opening clashes starting Dec. 2. Bob is the team's playmaker at his guard position.

Sportscaster's Dream!

This list of alphabetical mutilations gives some of the tongue-twisters that All-Americans of the past and present had as monikers. A sportscaster would have a great time if these fellows were to split up into two squads and play a game.

Following are some all-time All-American tongue-twisters:

The Top Ten Terrible Tilts

My puny efforts in the art of pigskin prognostications will terminate this week with an added attraction.

Look What the Gals Have Done!

The OCE girls' volleyball team thumped Portland State 60-6 here last Thursday evening for their third straight win of the season. The girls, coached by Mrs. Krey, had previously beaten George Fox 33-11 and Willamette 38-23.

On Saturday afternoon, December 6, WAA has planned a play-day for the members of the Willamette Valley league. The league consists of Willamette university, Lewis and Clark college, Linfield college, Pacific university, George Fox college, Portland State, Reed college, Marylhurst college, and OCE.

The squad members are Pat Holman, Hilde Boeder, Beverly Briem, June Freeman, Marilyn Melquist, Nada Rust, Midge Stevens, Jeannie Poole, Louise Yost, Frances Williams, Sylvia Partlow, Barbara Makinster, Rosalie Harrold and Eileea Enstad.

Mac Looks to '53 Season After a Successful '52 Windup

pear to be looking ahead into the future, not to the next game but to the 1953 pigskin season. It's no wonder that Mac looks ahead with fellows like Terry Mahoney (78), Gene Owens (57), Don Gillespie (43), Darrell Davis (55), and a host of fine ballplayers back with him next year. The Wolves wound-up the 1952 season in fine fashion with a 13-12 victory over OTI for the league crown.

Look Forward to '53

Lobos Look Back On Fine Season

Messrs. Bill McArthur and John Chamberlain again performed the impossible as they brought home the bacon for the third consecutive season. Though the Wolves took it on the chin in their nonconference battles, they wound up the season all even in the win-loss column and six contests under their belts.

Mac and John started out the season with a band of eager freshmen whom they planned to weld around a small nucleus of old vets. The plan worked well, except that injuries to key players like Ralph Wilcox and Dick Peterson, end candidates, and backfield stalwart Bud Michaels helped the cause in no way. Numerous other minor injuries kept other players from attaining their peak performance.

Three straight early season reversals sent the OCE charges into conference play with a rather dismal record. One of the losses was to the Northwest Conference co-champions. However the boys seemed to be laying for their conference foes and whipped the Portland State, Eastern Oregon and Oregon Tech for the conference toga.

The long tedious work of this year has developed many fine freshman prospects, not to mention the experience gained by the talented sophomores. Much acclaim can be given to John Chamberlain who has done wonders with a small and experience lacking line. It was this work which paid off when it counted most.

If all the talent developed this year will stick it out another round or two then football at OCE will be a spectacle of awe next year and in the years to come. Yes, Mac and John can look eagerly to the future.
